

STUDY ABROAD IN SIENA, ITALY!

3 credits, 35 days!
June 2 – July 6, 2017
COST: $4,958

(Includes: airfare, apartment lodging, excursions, instruction, entrance fees, transfer shuttle to Siena, contrada community dinners, and events.)

AA 383: Cultural Management in Italy How arts and culture are funded, maintained, and presented

One Academic Program, 2 Course Options

Prof. Tom Paradis, Topics in History, HST 305 (5-6 students max.)

Prof. Brenda Johnston, Topics in Arts Administration, AA 383 (5-6 students max.)

An interdisciplinary program that welcomes students with one or more of the following interests:

- Understanding and experiencing life in a different culture
- Learning about UNESCO and its role in arts and culture
- Understanding cultural policy and funding in Europe/Italy
- Visiting several museums in Siena, Florence, Bologna, and Venice (3-day trip!) to understand how works are exhibited in various venues
 - Learning about challenges facing arts and culture sectors in Italy vs. the US
 - Exploring Siena's 17 contradas (neighborhoods) and their community success

FEATURING: The Days of the Palio

One of Europe's Most Fascinating Medieval-era Community Events.

A recent Palio in Piazza del Campo,
Always raced on July 2 and Aug 16

Our first 10 Butler student "ambassadors" with Panther Contrada friends, June 2016

Contact: Prof Brenda Lee Johnston bljohnst@butler.edu (940-6043) to express interest.